

Jesus' Love for His Own

John 13 (Series: Walking with Jesus)

On October 6, 2024, by Philip Pinto @ Village Bible Church

IX. Introduction to the cross (11:54-12:50)

X. Jesus' final time with the disciples (13:1-17:26)

A. Jesus _____ for His own (13:1-38) (cf. Jn. 10:27)

1. Jesus _____ His disciples in deep humility (v. 1-20)

a. The act of service (v. 1-5)

1.) Jesus knew His hour/end had come (v. 1)

2.) Jesus began to wash their feet (v. 2-5)

b. The _____ from it (v. 6-20)

1.) You must be "_____" by Jesus (v. 6-11) (cf. Phil. 3:9-14; 1 Jn. 1:5-10)

2.) You must follow Jesus' example of _____ one another (v. 12-17)

3.) The Scripture must be _____ through the one who "lifted his heel against" Jesus (v. 18-19) (cf. Ps. 41:9)

4.) People must _____ the one Jesus sends to receive Jesus and the Father (v. 20)

2. Jesus' _____ spirit over the betrayer (v. 21-30)

a. Mutual love seen through mutual inner

_____ (v. 21-26)

b. Dismissal of the betrayer (v. 27-30)

1.) _____ entered into Judas (v. 27)

2.) The disciples didn't notice (v. 28-30)

3. The command to _____ one another (v. 31-35)

a. The Son of Man is glorified as a result of

_____ (v. 31-32)

b. Jesus _____ His disciples in light of His soon departure (v. 33)

c. Follow Jesus' example and obey His _____ _____ to love one another (v. 34-35)

4. A warning to Peter (v. 36-38)

Jesus' Love for His Own

John 13 (Series: Walking with Jesus)

On October 6, 2024, by Philip Pinto @ Village Bible Church

- IX. Introduction to the cross (11:54-12:50)
- X. Jesus' final time with the disciples (13:1-17:26)
 - A. Jesus love for His own (13:1-38) (cf. Jn. 10:27)
 - 1. Jesus served His disciples in deep humility (v. 1-20)
 - a. The act of service (v. 1-5)
 - 1.) Jesus knew His hour/end had come (v. 1)
 - 2.) Jesus began to wash their feet (v. 2-5)
 - b. The teaching from it (v. 6-20)
 - 1.) You must be "washed" by Jesus (v. 6-11) (cf. Phil. 3:9-14; 1 Jn. 1:5-10)
 - 2.) You must follow Jesus' example of servicing one another (v. 12-17)
 - 3.) The Scripture must be fulfilled through the one who "lifted his heel against" Jesus (v. 18-19) (cf. Ps. 41:9)
 - 4.) People must receive the one Jesus sends to receive Jesus and the Father (v. 20)
 - 2. Jesus' troubled spirit over the betrayer (v. 21-30)
 - a. Mutual love seen through mutual inner turmoil (v. 21-26)
 - b. Dismissal of the betrayer (v. 27-30)
 - 1.) Satan entered into Judas (v. 27)
 - 2.) The disciples didn't notice (v. 28-30)
 - 3. The command to love one another (v. 31-35)
 - a. The Son of Man is glorified as a result of Judas' betrayal (v. 31-32)
 - b. Jesus reassures His disciples in light of His soon departure (v. 33)
 - c. Follow Jesus' example and obey His new command to love one another (v. 34-35)
 - 4. A warning to Peter (v. 36-38)

Pastor's Note: In John 13, we see in vivid colors a portrait of "Jesus' Love for His Own." In the midst of His own inner turmoil Jesus set the example of humble service to those who, by rights, were like His royal subjects. What are we to do in light of this?